PERSONAL INFORMATION AND THE PRIVACY ACT (1993)

The school collects the information on this form to: enrol your child at school, assess their educational needs and ensure the school gets the correct resources from the Ministry of Education for your child.

The information is used in accordance with the Privacy Act. The school sends some of it to the Ministry of Education and other education and health agencies. The school will not provide your child's information to any other people or organisations without your authorisation, unless needed by law.

The Ministry of Education shares your address and phone number information with the Ministry of Social Development (MSD) as part of the Youth Service initiative. Youth Service identifies young people who may have difficulty finding future employment, training or further education. Youth Service uses the contact information to find these young people and support them into education or training when they leave school.

You have the right to access and to request corrections if your child's information is inaccurate; you also have an obligation to advise the school if any of the information you have provided should change

If for any reason your enrolment is not accepted, this enrolment form and the accompanying documentation will be destroyed.
